Pattern Quality Checklist

Before Trading Any Reversal Pattern

- [ ] Prior Trend Exists — Can't reverse without something to reverse
- [ ] Pattern Complete — Don't anticipate, wait for confirmation
- [ ] Volume Confirms — Proper volume signature for the pattern
- [ ] Location Makes Sense — At support/resistance or key level
- [ ] Timeframe Appropriate — Higher TF = more reliable
- [ ] Risk Defined — Stop placed beyond pattern extreme

Pattern Reliability Ranking

PATTERN	RELIABILITY	NOTES
Head & Shoulders	High	Best when volume confirms
Double Top/Bottom	High	Second test often undershoots
Engulfing	Medium	Needs location context
Wedges	Medium	Can fail in strong trends
Stars	Medium	Single candle, needs follow-through

Common False Signal Filters

RED FLAG	WHY IT'S DANGEROUS
No prior trend	Nothing to reverse
Low volume breakout	Weak conviction
Against higher TF trend	Fighting the current
At minor level	Not significant enough
News-driven spike	May not hold

SignalPilot Integration

PATTERN	SUPPORTING SIGNAL
Double Bottom	TD at second low
H&S Bottom	TD at head, IGN on neckline break
Bullish Engulfing	TD on engulfing bar
Double Top	WRN at second high
H&S Top	CAP at head, BDN on neckline break
Bearish Engulfing	WRN/CAP on engulfing bar

Measured Move Targets

Formula for All Patterns

Target = Breakout Point  $\pm$  Pattern Height

Double Bottom: Entry + (Neckline - Low)

Double Top: Entry - (High - Neckline)

H&S: Entry  $\pm$  (Head - Neckline)

Wedge: Entry  $\pm$  (Wedge Height at Base)

Entry Strategies

STRATEGY	APPROACH	RISK
Aggressive	Enter on pattern completion	Higher
Standard	Enter on confirmation break	Medium
Conservative	Enter on retest of breakout	Lower

Stop Placement Rules

PATTERN TYPE	STOP LOCATION
Double formations	Beyond the double extreme
Head & Shoulders	Beyond the head
Wedges	Beyond the wedge extreme
Candle patterns	Beyond the signal candle
